A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. [] attended the Interagency Round Table on Friday, 19 January, at Fort Meade. The meeting was chaired by []. The topics of discussion were programmed instruction and materials and other activities in connection with the teaching of African languages. Dr. Earl Stevik of the Foreign Service Institute exhibited materials in 3 African languages and described the experimental course in 4 African languages which is now being conducted at the Foreign Service Institute. The Foreign Service Institute, which will be the host for the Round Table at the next meeting 2 March, is inviting Dr. Rand Morton of the University of Michigan to discuss his work in programmed instruction in foreign languages. Dr. Morton will be working with FSI linguists for 2 days preceding the meeting, and we have been invited to participate in that phase of Dr. Morton's visit.
